CuttinUp Community: Empowering Futures Through Barbering, Community & Business

Collaborative Team

Cuttin' Up founder, Brian Porter, is an entrepreneur who has created a barbershop and team with a mission to make a positive impact on the community.

Growth Strategies

We urgently require passenger vans to transport underprivileged individuals for essential services, such as showers and haircuts, to ensure their safety and stability.

Community Support

Cuttin' Up Community project aims to offer apprentice opportunities to at-risk youth, adults, and seniors, as well as reentry and unsheltered individuals in the community, to empower the underprivileged and create positive change in
